

Camper Behavior Policy camper full name _____

Campers are expected to behave appropriately and to participate in all activities. If a child becomes overly disruptive we will make our best effort to resolve the problem in a positive manner. If behavior does not improve OR in any cases of physical assault or flight risk, the child will be sent home and will not be allowed to return to camp for the rest of week. NO REFUNDS OR CREDITS WILL BE GRANTED

Please read with your camper, initial at every item, sign and return to infobigsky@gmail.com.

____ My child will arrive and remain at camp with a positive attitude, open to meeting new people and trying new activities.

____ My child understands that doing intentional harm or bullying another camper, either physically or emotionally is grounds for dismissal from camp.

____ My child understands that although he/she may be able to solve some conflicts on their own, their mentors and teachers are always ready to listen and assist if there is a problem. My child understands that his/her counselors, and all of the camp staff, need and want to help, but, can only do so if he/she are willing to share any concerns that they have with them.

____ My child will remain with his/her activity group as required.

____ My child will use appropriate language and understand that the use of excessive, deliberate, profane language will not be accepted.

____ My child will leave his/her cell phone at home understanding that if there is an emergency the camp staff will be happy to allow them to use the phone and will pass on any urgent messages from home.

____ My child will be respectful of the property and personal space of other campers.

____ My child believes that it is possible to spend his/her time at camp "electronics free" and will leave any video games, music systems, cameras or other digital devices at home.
